

2017-2018 Programs

Be Involved, Be Informed, Be Connected

Fall Seminar

EMOTIONAL WELL-BEING BEGINS AT HOME

Supporting your child's mental health: signs to look out for, skills to develop

Panelists from the Jed Foundation (JED) and Anne Marie Albano, PhD, ABPP

Event moderator: John MacPhee, MPH, MBA, Executive Director, JED

Wednesday, October 25th, 2017, 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm, Trevor Day School, 312 East 95th Street
Details and RSVP at parentsinaction.org

Fall Benefit Luncheon

DOUGLAS BRUNT, bestselling author of Trophy Son will speak on the costs of pressure and perfection and the roles parents can and should play

Wednesday, November 9th, 2017 12:00pm - 2:00 pm, Colony Club, 564 Park Avenue
Details and RSVP at parentsinaction.org

School Relations Luncheon

Speaker to be announced

Tuesday, December 5, 2017 12:00 pm - 2:00 pm, Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church
Contact your PIA School Rep to RSVP for this free event (space is limited)

Stay tuned for Winter/Spring Events

TEEN SCENE XXXII - NYC independent school teens tell it like it is! A PIA signature event

FATHERS FORUM - An evening seminar created especially for dads

MOTHER'S DAY BENEFIT - Support PIA! Join us for an engaging speaker and delicious lunch

Get Involved

Consider becoming a Parent Talk Facilitator!

Contact facilitation@parentsinaction.org for information about the winter 2017 training series.
Be sure to attend the Parent Talk meeting for your child's grade. Check your school calendar for dates.

Visit parentsinaction.org for detailed information and to register for events. And follow us!

