Dwight-Englewood School Theatre Ticket Order Form

"There is an island where rivers run deep...where the poorest of peasants labor and the wealthiest of grands hommes play...two different worlds on one island," begins the musical Once On This Island, a re-telling of Hans Christian Anderson's classic tale, The Little Mermaid. Ti Moune is a peasant girl who falls in love with Daniel, a rich boy from the other side of the island. Sent on a journey by the gods to test if love is stronger than death, Ti Moune sets about challenging the racial discrimination on the island, and ultimately chooses death rather than forfeit her right to love who she chooses. But her sacrifice is not in vain, as Ti Moune opens the gates for future generations to love in peace. Please join us Thursday, May 16th or Friday, May 17th at 7:00pm in Schenck Auditorium for Once On This Island, a tale for our times that reminds us love is the greatest power we have.
